*You are on a journey.
You will learn about the lives of some of the best men that ever lived.
These were men sent by Allah.
You will learn why they were sent,
who they were sent to,
and what lessons we can learn from their lives.
They are the Prophets.
The first of them is Adam ﷺ and the last of them is Muhammad ﷺ.*

setting off

As with any journey, you will need to know where you are going; having a map of your route certainly helps! On the following pages you will see a map of the Prophets mentioned in the Noble Quran. Follow the path on the map carefully and look out for the names you have heard before.

From amongst all of these Prophets of Allah, five are mentioned in the Quran (in Surah Al-Ahzaab, Ash-Shura & Al-Ahqaaf) as أولوا العزم or Prophets of great determination. They are Nuh ﷺ, Ibrahim ﷺ, Musa ﷺ, Eesa ﷺ and Muhammad ﷺ. We shall learn about the life of Muhammad ﷺ in detail in a dedicated subject in the Stem Series. For now, we'll take a closer look at the other four Prophets mentioned, as well as the Prophet Adam ﷺ; the first Prophet of Allah. Take a look at the map on the next page...

Adam
آدم عليه السلام

Nuh
نوح عليه السلام

As you may have guessed from the title of this book, you'll be learning about the story of Nuh ﷺ. You can discover more about the other Prophets in the rest of this series.

As you travel, you will need to acquaint yourself with some essential information. Without it, you will be lost, and may not reach your final destination. Read up on the following symbols to find out what to expect along your way.

Before you begin any journey, you need to know where you are going and why you are going there. With all the stories in this book, your aim is broken into three parts. You must be able to read the story yourself, summarize the main events and place them in the correct order. You should be able to understand the finer details of what occurred in the story. Finally, you could be able to understand the reasoning behind some of the story events. You will be able to test whether you have achieved your targets at the end of each section by attempting to overcome the obstacles in your way.

One of the other things you need to do before any journey is to prepare! Pack Your Bags involves reminding yourself about the meanings of some essential key words that occur in the story.

Once you have set off on your journey, you'll need to think actively about what you are learning.

Reflections occur in the middle of stories and get you to ponder a little deeper into the events.

Once the reading is over, you'll take a well earned rest at the Rest Point. You'll do some light word-work to ensure you understand the language used in the story.

Now begins your chance to prove what you have learnt. You have to cross three different obstacles, each getting harder as you go along. By completing each of these you will ensure you have covered the aims of your journey. First you have to Jump the Fence by proving you know enough about the events of the story.

The next task is a little harder. Cross the River is all about checking whether you picked up the smaller details of what actually happened in the story.

The final and hardest task is called Climb the Mountain. Here you have to show an understanding of why things happened the way they did in the story.

*After completing each section, be sure to have your answers marked in The Farewell Mark chapter at the end of this book.
Well that's all you need to know before you start!
It's time to begin your journey...*

بِسْمِ اللّٰهِ

Bismillah!

the long call

Some of the words that occur in the story are mentioned below. Take a quick look at them to see which ones you already know. We'll do some light work on these and other words at the end.

PEOPLE

ANIMALS

Nuh was a Prophet of Islam.
May Allah bless Nuh.
'Alay-his-salaam

The people of Nuh were bad.
They prayed to stones.
They did not pray to Allah alone.

Nuh told them in lots of ways.
He told them for many days.

“Pray to Allah alone.
Do what Allah likes.”

That is our aim in life.

The bad people did not care.
They did not even want to hear.
But the Muslims were with Nuh.
They did not turn away.
With Nuh they took their way.

Allah told Nuh to make a ship.
Nuh did what Allah said.
The ship was made for a very big trip.

Nuh began in the name of Allah,
“Bismillah!”

Nuh عليه السلام began by saying 'Bismillah.' (بِسْمِ اللَّهِ).

On what type of occasions do Muslims generally say 'Bismillah'?

Give some examples and write your thoughts in the space below.

The Muslims came too.
The animals were also there.
They came along, two by two.

The bad people turned away.
The ship was not made for play.

Rest Point

Jump the Fence

Write a summary of the story in three sentences. You must write one sentence in each box. A quick tip; think about the sentences before you write them down!

Handwriting practice box 1 with a dashed border and a circular number 1 in the top-left corner. The box contains several horizontal lines for writing.

Handwriting practice box 2 with a dashed border and a circular number 2 in the top-left corner. The box contains several horizontal lines for writing.

Handwriting practice box 3 with a dashed border and a circular number 3 in the bottom-right corner. The box contains several horizontal lines for writing.

Cross the River

We have made things easy this time by giving you the answers. But wait! You'll have to come up with the questions! Write an appropriate question for each of the following answers in the spaces provided.

A Nuh called his people in many ways and for many days.

2

A Nuh's message was, "Pray to Allah alone. Do what Allah likes."

3

A The Muslims were with Nuh.

4

A Nuh said, "Bismillah!" before he began the trip.

5

A Nuh, the Muslims and the animals went onto the ship.

A The bad people stayed behind.

Climb the Mountain

There are three more questions before we move on. Simply write your answers to the following questions in the spaces provided.

1. Why did the people of Nuh pray to stones?

.....

.....

2. Why did the people turn away from Nuh?

.....

3. Why did Allah tell Nuh to build a ship?

the high waves

As before, you'll need to prepare for this part of your journey. Some of the words that occur in the story are mentioned below. Get familiar with them. We'll do some work on these and other words at the end.

FLOOD

TEST

Allah sent lots of rain from the sky.
There was a big flood.
No place was left dry.

The sea waves grew very tall.
No place was safe at all.

The ship was the only place.
High on the waves it was safe.

Subhaanallah! What a storm! What do you think must have happened to the people that chose not to go with Nuh ﷺ? Write your thoughts down, then turn over to see if you were right.

A series of horizontal dotted lines for writing.

The bad people had no ship to ride.
They found no place to hide.

The water washed them away.
The ship was not made for play.

It was all a big test.
Some time went by.
All the water left.

The ship came down.
It was safe on the ground.

Allah saved Nuh.
The Muslims were saved too.
But they were only a few.
What Nuh said was true...

“Pray to Allah alone.
Do what Allah likes.”

That is our aim in life.

Rest Point

What an ending! There's a treasure chest of lessons to learn! Before we get carry on, lets do some word-work. In the spaces below, write the meanings of the words listed or provide a sentence where asked.

Cross the River

Now we'll look at some finer details of what happened in the story. There's lots of describing to be done here! Your answers must include all of the words you covered in the Rest Point.

Describe what started happening to the earth.

A large dotted-line writing area for the student's response, consisting of approximately 15 horizontal lines.

Describe what happened to Nuh and those with him.

Handwriting practice area with a dotted border and horizontal lines for writing.

Describe what happened to the people who were not with Nuh.

Handwriting practice area with a dotted border and horizontal lines for writing.

Climb the Mountain

Now for some reasoning. Answer the three questions below.

1. Why was the ship safe?

2. Why did the ship come down to the ground?

3. Why was the flood such a big test?

the farewell mark

Every journey, no matter how long, must come to an end. You have come to the end of your journey through the life of Prophet Nuh ﷺ. One of the ways you can measure your success is through seeing how well you did in clearing the obstacles that came in your path. Suggested answers to each chapter are offered in the pages that follow. You are encouraged to have your progress marked.

However, there is more to measuring your success than just clearing the obstacles. One of the most valuable measures is your own thoughts on what you have learnt and enjoyed most. Hopefully, you will take away a treasure chest of lessons from this wonderful and important story, and continue learning more about it in the future. This chapter offers you the chance to judge for yourself what was your most valuable farewell mark.

At the end of a journey, it's always nice to pause and think over what you can most benefit from. Think hard about what were the most valuable lessons you learnt during this journey. Take a moment to think again and select one lesson, idea or thought that you will take away from your experience...

	Allah sent lots of rain from the sky. The sea waves grew tall. There was a big flood. • Nuh and the Muslims were safe in the ship. The ship was the only safe place during the flood. • Those who did not go with Nuh were washed away in the flood. They found no place to hide.
	The ship was safe because Allah saved it from the flood. • The water left and the sea level came down, and so the ship did too. • It was a test to see who would accept the truth and follow Nuh.
